Idle Hill Advisors, LLC (“IHAL”) is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment adviser.

Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you, our client, to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to you so you can research firms and financial professionals at: Investor.gov/CRS. This website also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

IHAL offers ongoing portfolio management services inclusive of financial planning services to retail investors. Investment management services are provided on a discretionary basis, which means that we can make changes to your portfolio without first obtaining your express prior permission. We regularly monitor your investment accounts and make investment changes when necessary. There is no account minimum for any of IHAL’s services. We do not offer any proprietary products or wrap fee programs.

When we manage your assets, we act as a fiduciary, which means that we must prudently take care of your money and must, at all times, act for your benefit.

You can find a more detailed description of our services in Item 4 of our Form ADV Part 2: <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/317040>

CONVERSATION STARTERS, ask your financial professional:

Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?

How will you choose investments to recommend to me?

What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications?

What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

Our Investment Management fees are based on a percentage of Assets under Management. Asset Management fees are paid monthly and debited to your account. Financial Planning is not offered as a stand-alone service.

In addition to the fees we charge, you may also pay Transaction Fees and fees charged by individual Mutual Funds, Separate Account Managers or other products.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

You can find more detailed information about fees in our ADV Part 2A:

<https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/317040>

CONVERSATION STARTERS, ask your financial professional:

Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates a conflict with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Below is an example to help you understand what this means.

Individuals providing investment advice on behalf of our firm are licensed as independent insurance agents. These individuals will earn commission-based compensation for selling insurance products. Insurance commissions are separate and in addition to our advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because they have an incentive to recommend insurance products to you which will generate commissions.

CONVERSATION STARTER, ask your financial professional:

How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

You can find more detailed information about our conflicts and Other Business Activities in Item 10 of our ADV Part 2A: <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/317040>

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals who act as relationship managers are paid a portion of the fee we charge you after our expenses are paid.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

Yes, one of our Advisory Affiliates has a disciplinary history. Visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and our financial professionals.

CONVERSATION STARTER, ask your financial professional:

As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
